The cards shall then be placed in some suitable receptacle and well shaken together; thereupon four of these cards shall be drawn successively, and at random, and one delegate from each of the four clubs whose names are so drawn, shall, with the President, compose the Board, and if any club whose name is thus drawn be represented by two delegates, such delegation shall name one of its number to be a member of the Board.

At the expiration of his term of office, he shall account for and deliver up to the Board all the property and papers which may have come into his hands by virtue of his office.

VACANCY IN THE BOARD.

Sec. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Board by reason of the death, resignation, absence, or disqualification of any Director, the club of which he was a member at the time he was chosen shall designate his successor, and at once notify the Secretary. But if such vacancy is caused by the withdrawal, disbanding or disqualification of a club represented on the Board, the Board may fill the vacancy by election in the same manner as provided for the election of Directors in Article IV, Section 1, of this Constitution.

DIRECTORS' QUALIFICATIONS.

No person shall be qualified to act as a Director who is not an actual member of the club he represents; nor shall any club, under any circumstances, be represented by more than one person on the Board.

EMPLOYMENT OF EXPELLED PLAYERS FORBIDDEN.

SEC. 2. Sec. 6. Any player, under contract with a League club, who shall be guilty of drunkenness or insubordination, or of any dishonorable or disreputable conduct, may be suspended by such club for the remainder of the playing season, or for the remainder of that and all of the ensuing playing season, at the option of such club; and, during the period of said suspension, such player shall be disqualified from playing in or against any League club.

Sec. 7. If any club shall take part in any game of ball on Sunday, or if it shall fail to immediately expel any man under contract with it for taking part in such game as player, umpire or scorer, then, and in either of these cases, the club shall forfeit its membership in the League, and the Board shall, after calling for and considering the defense of the club, if any be furnished within ten days after being called for by the Chairman of the Board, direct the Secretary, and he shall at once notify all League clubs of the forfeiture of membership of any club convicted of such offense; and all other League clubs must and shall, under penalty of the forfeiture of their membership in the League, abstain from playing any such club (after the receipt of such notice,) until it shall have been reinstated or reelected to membership.

SEC. 8. Every club member of this League shall have exclusive control of the city in which it is located, and of the territory surrounding such city to the extent of four miles in every direction from its corporate limits, and no visiting League club shall, under any circumstances—not even with the consent of the local League club, until all League championship games on that ground shall have been finished—be allowed to play any club in such territory other than the League club therein located.

SEC. 9. The players and managers employed by the clubs belonging to this League shall be considered and treated as members hereof to the extent of being always amenable to the provisions of this Constitution, and entitled to all its privileges in matters of dispute, grievance or discipline, as provided in this Constitution.

ARTICLE VI.

DUES AND ASSESSMENTS.

Section 1. Every club shall pay to the Secretary of the League, on or before the first day of May of each year, the sum of One Hundred Dollars as annual dues, and any club failing to pay said sum by such time shall thereby forfeit its membership in the League, and the Secretary of the League shall notify all League clubs of such forfeiture of membership, by telegraph, on said first day of May, and all other League clubs must and shall, under penalty of the forfeiture of their membership in the League, abstain from playing any such club until it shall have been reinstated or reelected to membership.

ARTICLE VIII.

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall at once consider any complaint preferred by a club against a player of another club for conduct in violation of any provision of this Constitution or prejudicial to the good repute of the game of base ball, and shall have power to require the club to which such player may belong to discipline him, and, upon repetition of such offense, to expel him: Provided, That such complaint be preferred in writing, giving such particulars as may enable the Board to ascertain all the facts, and be transmitted to the Secretary, by whom it shall at once be referred to the Board.

DISPUTES BETWEEN CLUBS INVOLVING CONSTRUCTION OF THIS CONSTITUTION.

SEC. 2. The Board shall be the sole tribunal to determine disputes between two or more clubs which involve the interpretation or construction of this Constitution, or any of its Articles, and facts in controversy. When such a dispute arises, and either club shall signify to the other its desire for the Board to decide the matter, each club shall furnish to the Secretary, as soon as possible, a written statement of its side of the dispute, with the names of its witnesses, or an agreed statement of facts, if possible, which the Secretary shall docket in the order of its reception, and at the next annual meeting the clubs shall present themselves before the Board with their testimony, and the Board shall proceed to try the case impartially and render a true verdict. . The Board shall have a right to put the witnesses under oath, and must do so if demanded thereto by either party. No Director shall sit on the trial of a cause in which his club is interested, but must retire and permit the others alone to determine the matter. The finding of the Board, in such a case, shall be final, and under no circumstances shall be reconsidered, reopened or inquired into, either by the League or any subsequent Board: Provided, That in case the matter in dispute shall involve the forfeiture of membership of a League club during the playing season, the Board shall, if appealed to by such club through the Secretary of the League, forthwith determine the matter, but, in such case, the members of the Board shall (unless the ends of justice may seem to them to require a meeting) determine such question by conference with each other by written correspondence.

PLAYER'S APPEAL FROM HIS CLUB.

SEC. 3. The Board shall also be the sole tribunal for the hearing of an appeal made by any player who shall have been expelled or suspended by his club, or for an alleged breach of contract. The matter shall be proceeded with in the following manner: The player shall file with the Secretary a written statement of his defense, accompanied by a request that an appeal be allowed him. The Secretary shall notify the club of the request for appeal, accompanying such notice with a copy of the player's statement, and at the next annual meeting the club and the player shall appear before the Board with their testimony. The Board shall impartially hear the matter and render their decision, which shall be final and forever binding on both club and player. In the event the club appealed from is represented in the Board, that representative shall not be allowed to sit in the matter.

EXPENSES.

Sec. 4. The expense of all trials and arbitrations shall be equally borne by the parties litigant.

ARTICLE IX.

must be promptly ejected from the grounds.

Every club shall furnish sufficient police force upon its own grounds to preserve order, and in the event of a crowd entering the field during the progress of a game, and interfering with the play in any manner, the visiting club may refuse to play further until the field be cleared; and if the ground be not cleared within fifteen minutes thereafter, the visiting club may claim, and shall be entitled, to the game by a score of nine runs to none (no matter what number of innings have been played).

NATIONAL LEAGUE

PROFESSIONAL BASE-BALL CLUBS

1880.

CLASS I.

THE MATERIALS OF THE GAME.

Rule 1. The Ground must be an inclosed field, sufficient in size to enable each player to play in his position as required by these Rules.

Rule 2. The Infield must be a space of ground thirty yards square.

Rule 3. The Bases must be

(1) Four in number, and designated as First Base,

Second Base, Third Base and Home Base.

The Home Base must be of white marble or white stone, twelve inches square, so fixed in the ground as to be even with the surface, and so placed in a corner of the infield that two of its sides will form part of the boundaries of said infield.

(3) The First, Second and Third Bases must be canvas bags, fifteen inches square, painted white, and filled with some soft material, and so placed that the center of each shall be upon a separate corner of the infield, the First Base at the right, the Second Base opposite, and the Third Base at the left of the Home Base.

All the Bases must be securely fastened in their positions, and so placed as to be distinctly seen by the Umpire.

Rule 4. The Foul Lines must be drawn in straight lines from the outer corner of the Home Base through the center of the positions of First and Third Bases, to the boundaries of the Ground.

Rule 5. The Pitcher's Lines must be straight lines forming the boundaries of a space of ground, in the infield, six feet long by four feet wide, distant forty-five feet from the center of the Home Base, and so placed that the six feet lines would each be two feet distant from and parallel with a straight line passing through the center of the Home and Second Bases. Each corner of this space must be marked by a flat iron plate or stone, six inches square, fixed in the ground even with the surface.

Rule 6. The Catcher's Lines must be drawn from the outer corner of the Home Base, in continuation of the Foul Lines, straight to the limits of the ground back of the Home Base.

Rule 7. The Captain's Lines must be drawn from the Catcher's Lines to the limits of the ground, fifteen feet from and parallel with the Foul Lines.

Rule 8. The Players' Lines must be drawn from the Catcher's Lines to the limits of the ground, fifty feet from and parallel with the Foul Lines.

Rule 9. The Batsman's Lines must be straight lines forming the boundaries of a space on the right, and of a similar space on the left of the Home Base, six feet long by three feet wide, extending three feet in front of and three feet behind the center of the Home Base, and with its nearest line distant one foot from the Home Base.

Rule 10. The lines designated in Rules 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 must be marked with chalk or other suitable material so as to be distinctly seen by the Umpire. They must all be so marked their entire length, except the Captain's and Players' Lines, which must be so marked for a distance of at least thirty-five yards from the Catcher's Lines.

Rule 11. The Ball

(1) Must weigh not less than five nor more than five and one-quarter ounces avoirdupois, and measure not less than nine nor more than nine and one-quarter inches in circumference. It must be composed of woolen yarn, and contain not more than one ounce of vulcanized rubber in mold form, and be covered with leather. It must be furnished by the Secretary of the League, whose seal shall be final evidence of the legality of the ball.

(2) In all games the ball or balls played with shall be furnished by the Home Club and become the property of the winning club.

(3) Should the ball become out of shape, or cut or ripped so as to expose the yarn, or in any way so injured as to be unfit for fair use, a new ball shall be called for by the Umpire at the end of an even innings.

(4) Should the ball be lost during the game, the Umpire shall, at the expiration of five minutes, call for a new ball.

Rule 12. The Bat

(1) Must be made wholly of wood.

(2) It must be round; must not exceed two and one-half inches in diameter in the thickest part, and must not exceed forty-two inches in length.

CLASS II.

THE PLAYERS AND THEIR POSITIONS.

Rule 13. The Players of each club, in a match game, shall be nine in number, one of whom shall be the Captain.

Rule 14. The Players' Positions shall be

(2) When their side is at the bat they must remain outside the Players' Lines, as defined in Rule 8, except that the Captain and one assistant only may occupy the space between said Players' Lines and the Captain's Lines, as defined in Rule 7, to coach base runners, and

(3) The Batsmen must take their position within the Batsman's Lines, as defined in Rule 9, in the order in which they are directed by their Captain, and after each Batsman has had one time at bat, the batting order thus established shall not be changed during the game.

Rule 19. An Unfair Ball is a ball delivered by the Pitcher as in Rule 18, except that the ball does not pass over the Home Base, or does not pass over the Home Base at the height called for by the Batsman.

Rule 20. A Balk is

(1) A motion made by the Pitcher to deliver the ball to the bat without delivering it, except the ball be accidentally dropped, or

(2) The ball be held by the Pitcher so long as to delay the game unnecessarily, or

(3) Delivered to the bat by the Pitcher when any part of his person is upon ground outside the lines of his position.

Rule 21. A Foul Balk is a ball delivered to the bat by the Pitcher by an overhand throw, or by any swing of the arm or hand other than that prescribed in Rule 18.

Rule 22. A Dead Ball is a ball delivered to the bat by the Pitcher, that touches the Batsman's bat without being struck at, or any part of the Batsman's person while standing in his position, or any part of the Umpire's person without first passing the Catcher.

Rule 23. A Fair Hit is a ball batted by the Batsman, standing in his position, that first touches the ground, the First Base, the Third Base, the person of a player, or any other object, in front of or on either of the Foul Lines; or (Exception) batted directly to the ground by the Batsman, standing in his position, that (whether it first touches Foul or Fair Ground) bounds or rolls within the Foul Lines between Home and First or Home and Third Bases without first touching the person of a player.

Rule 24. Rule 25. A Strike is

(1) A ball struck at by the Batsman without it touching his bat, or

(2) A ball legally delivered by the Pitcher at the height called for by the Batsman, and over the Home Base, but not struck at by the Batsman.

Rule 26. A Foul Strike is a ball batted by the Batsman when any part of his person is upon ground outside the lines of the Batsman's position.

Rule 27. Play is the order of the Umpire to begin the game, or to resume play after its suspension.

Rule 28. Time is the order of the Umpire to suspend play. Such suspension must not extend beyond the day of the game.

Umpire that the game is terminated.

Rule 30. An Inning is the turn at bat of the nine players representing a Club in a game, and is completed when three of such players have been put out as provided in these Rules.

Rule 31. A time at bat is the term at bat of a batsman. It begins when he takes his position, and continues until he is put out or becomes a base runner.

Rule 32. Legal, or Legally, signifies as required by these rules.

CLASS IV.

THE GAME.

Rule 33. A Game shall consist of nine innings to each contesting nine, except that:

(1) If the side first at bat scores less runs in nine innings than the other side has scored in eight innings, the game shall then terminate.

(2) If the side last at bat in the ninth innings scores the winning run before the third man is out, the game shall then terminate.

- (3) If the score be a tie at the end of nine innings to each side, play shall only be continued until the side first at bat shall have scored one or more runs than the other side, in an equal number of innings; or until the other side shall score one more run than the side first at bat.
- (4) If the Umpire calls "game" on account of darkness or rain at any time after five innings have been completed by both sides, the score shall be that of the last equal innings played, unless the side second at bat shall have scored one or more runs than the side first at bat, in which case the score of the game shall be the total number of runs made.
- Rule 34. A Drawn Game shall be declared by the Umpire when he terminates a game, on account of darkness or rain, after five equal innings have been played, if the score at the time is equal on the last even innings played; but (Exception) if the side that went second to bat is then at the bat, and has scored the same number of runs as the other side, the Umpire shall declare the game drawn, without regard to the score of the last equal innings.

Rule 35. A Forfeited Game shall be declared by the Umpire, in favor of the Club not in fault, in the following cases:

(1) If the Nine of a Club fail to appear upon the Field, or, being upon the Field, fail to begin the game, within five minutes after the Umpire has called "Play" at the hour appointed for the beginning of a game.

(2) If, after the game has begun, one side refuses or fails to continue playing, unless such game has been suspended or terminated by the Umpire.

(3) If, after play has been suspended by the Umpire, one side fails to resume playing within five minutes after the Umpire has called "Play."

(4) If the Umpire calls three Foul Balks in one inning, and has warned the Pitcher of the penalty after the second Foul Balk and before the third is called.

(5) If, in the opinion of the Umpire, any one of these Rules is willfully violated.

Rule 36. "No Game" shall be declared by the Umpire if he shall terminate play, on account of rain or darkness, before five innings on each side are completed.

Rule 37. A Substitute shall not be allowed to take the place of any player in a game, after the commencement of the second inning of the side first at bat, unless such player be disabled, in the game then being played, by reason of illness or injury.

Rule 38. The Choice of First Innings shall be determined by the two Captains.

Rule 39. The Game must begin when the Umpire calls "Play. When he calls "Time," play shall be suspended until he calls "Play" again, and during the interim no player shall be put out, base be run, or run be scored. The Umpire shall suspend play only for an accident to himself or a player, or in case rain falls so heavily that, in his opinion, the game cannot fairly proceed, in which case he shall note the time of suspension, and, should such rain continue to fall thirty minutes thereafter, he shall terminate the game. The Umpire shall also declare every "dead ball," "foul hit," "foul strike," "balk" and "foul balk," and after declaring the second "foul balk" in one inning shall warn the Pitcher of the penalty prescribed by Rule 35, (4.)

Rule 40. The Batsman, on taking his position, must call for a "high ball," a "low ball," or a "high or low ball," and the Umpire shall notify the Pitcher to deliver the ball as required; such call shall not be changed after the first ball delivered. The Umpire shall count and call every "unfair ball" delivered by the Pitcher, and every "foul balk" and "dead ball" if also an "unfair ball" as a "ball; and he shall also count and call every "strike," except that, after two strikes have been called, should the Batsman fail to strike at the next fair ball, the Umpire shall omit the couns in that instance only, but shall warn the Batsman by calling "good ball." Neither a "ball" nor a "strike" shall be called or counted until the ball has passed the Home Base.

Rule 41. The Batsman is out

(1) If he fails to take his position at the bat in his order of batting, unless the error be discovered and the proper Batsman takes his position before a fair hit has been made.

(2) If he fails to take his position within one minute after the Umpire has called for the Batsman.

(3) If he makes a foul hit and the ball be momentarily held by a fielder before touching the ground, or after touching the ground but once, provided it be not caught in a fielder's hat or cap, or touch some object other than the fielder before touching the ground or before being caught.

(4) If he makes a foul strike.

(5) If he plainly attempts to hinder the Catcher from catching the ball, evidently without effort to make a fair hit.

Rule 42. The Batsman becomes a Base Runner

(1) When he makes a fair hit.

(2) When eight balls have been called by the Umpire.

(3) When three strikes have been declared by the Umpire.

Rule 43. The Base Runner must touch each Base in regular order, viz: First, Second, Third, and Home Bases, and when obliged to return must retouch the base or bases in reverse order. He shall only be considered as holding a base after touching it, and shall then be entitled to hold such base until he has legally touched the next base in order, or has been legally forced to vacate it for a succeeding Base-Runner.

Rule 44. The Base-Runner shall be entitled, without being put out, to take one Base, provided he do so on the run, in the following cases:

(1) If, while he was Batsman, the Umpire called eight balls.

(2) If the Umpire awards a succeeding Batsman a base on eight balls, and the Base-Runner is thereby forced to vacate the base held by him.

(3) If the Umpire calls a Balk.

(4) If a ball delivered by the Pitcher pass the Catcher and touch any fence or building within ninety feet of the Home Base.

(5) If he be prevented from making a base by the obstruction of an adversary.

(6) If a Fielder stop or catch a batted ball with his hat or any part of his dress.

(7) If a batted or thrown ball be stopped by any person not engaged in the game, and, in such case, the ball shall not be considered in play until it is held by the Pitcher standing in his position.

Rule 45. The Base-Runner may have a Substitute run for him, in case of illness or injury incurred in the game then being played, provided he has reached First Base, and in such case, the oppsing Captain shall select such substitute from the side at bat.

Rule 46. The Base-Runner is out

(1) If, having made a fair hit while Batsman, such fair hit ball be momentarily held by a Fielder, before touching the ground or any object other than a Fielder, provided it be not caught in the Fielder's hat or cap.

(2) If, when the Umpire has declared three strikes on him while Batsman, the third strike ball be momentarily held by a Fielder before touching the ground; provided it be not caught in a Fielder's hat or cap, or touch some object other than a Fielder before being caught.

(3) If, after three strikes or a fair hit, he be touched with the ball in the hand of a Fielder before such Base-Runner touches First Base.

(4) If, after three strikes or a fair hit, the ball be securely held by a Fielder, while touching First Base with any part of his person, before such Base-Runner touches First Base.

(5) If, after three strikes, eight balls, or a fair hit, he fails to run to First Base.

(6) If, in running to First Base, he runs inside the Foul Line or more than three feet outside of it, except that he must do so if necessary to avoid a Fielder attempting to field a batted ball, and in such case shall not be declared out.

(7) If, in running from First to Second Base, from Second to Third Base, or from Third to Home Base, he runs more than three feet from a direct line between such bases to avoid being touched by the ball in the hands of a Fielder; but in case a Fielder be occupying the Base-Runner's proper path, attempting to field a batted ball, then the Base-Runner shall run out of the path and behind said Fielder, and shall not be declared out for so doing.

(S) If he fails to avoid a Fielder attempting to field a batted ball, in the manner prescribed in (6) and (7) of this Rule, or if he, in any way, obstructs a Fielder attempting to field a batted ball.

(9) If, at any time while the ball is in play, he be touched by the ball in the hand of a Fielder, unless some part of his person is touching a base he is entitled to occupy, provided the ball be held by the Fielder after touching him; but (exception as to First Base) in running to First Base he may over-run said base without being put out for being off said base, after first touching it, provided he returns at once and retouches the base, after which he may be put out as at any other base. If, in overrunning First Base, he also attempts to run to Second Base, he shall forfeit such ex-

(10) If, when a Fair or Foul Hit ball is legally caught by a Fielder before it touches the ground, such ball is legally held by a Fielder on the base occupied by the Base-Runner when such ball was struck (or the Base-Runner be touched with the ball in the hand of a Fielder), before he retouches said base after such Fair or Foul Hit Ball was so caught; provided, That the Base-Runner shall not be out in such case, if, after the ball was legally caught as above, it be delivered to the bat by the Pitcher before the Fielder holds it on the said base or touches the Base-Runner with it.

(11) If, when the ball, from a Foul Hit, has struck the ground before being caught, or the Batsman has made a Foul Strike, the Base-Runner fails to retouch the base held by him when the ball was struck, after such ball has been returned to and held by the Pitcher standing in his position; provided, That, after the Batsman makes such Foul Hit or Foul Strike, the Base-Runner may return to said base without being declared out, if he do so on the run.

(12) If, when a Batsman becomes a Base-Runner, [except as provided in Rule 43], the First Base, or the First and Second Bases, or the First, Second and Third Bases, be occupied, any Base-Runner so occupying a base shall cease to be entitled to hold it, until the Base-Runner running to First Base is put ont, and may be put out at the next base or by being touched by the ball in the hand of a Fielder in the same manner as in running to First Base, at any time before the Base-Runner running to First Base is put out.

(13) If a Fair Hit ball strike him he shall be declared out, and in such case no base shall be run unless forced, and no run be scored.

1 (14) If, when running to a base or forced to return to a base, he fail to touch the intervening base or bases, if any, in the order prescribed in Rule 42; provided, That he shall not be declared out unless the Cap-cain of the fielding side claim such decision before the ball is delivered to the bat by the Pitcher.

Rule 47. The Umpire shall declare the Batsman or Base-Runner out, without waiting for an appeal for such decision, in all cases where such player is put out in accordance with these Rules, except as provided in Rule 46, (10) and (14).

Rule 48. When a Dead Ball is declared by the Umpire, no player shall be put out, base be run, or run be scored on such ball, unless such ball be also the eighth Unfair Ball, that entitles the striker to a base, in which case the striker shall take First Base, and any Base-Runner thereby forced to vacate a base shall take one base without being put out, and if a base thus taken be the Home Base the run shall be scored.

Rule 49. One Run shall be scored every time a Base Runner, after having legally touched the first three bases, shall touch the Home Base before three men are put out. If the third man is forced out, or is put out before reaching First Base, a run shall not be scored.

Rule 50. If the Pitcher causes the ball to strike the Batsman, and the Umpire be satisfied that he does it intentionally, he shall fine the Pitcher therefor in a sum not less than Ten Dollars nor more than Fifty Dollars.

Rule. 51. No Player, except the Captain or his assistant, shall address the Umpire concerning any point of play, and any violation of this Rule shall subject the offender to a fine by the Umpire.

Rule 52. No Manager, Captain or Player shall address the audience during the progress of a game, except in case of necessary explanation.

Rule 53. No person not engaged in the game shall be permitted to occupy any position within the lines of the Field, or to interfere in any way with the Umpire or the players during the progress of a game.

CLASS V. THE UMPIRE.

Rule 54. The Umpire shall be selected as follows:

(1) Two clubs may, by mutual agreement, select any man to umpire any game or games, provided that such agreement be in writing, and the man so selected agrees not less than seven days before such game, or the first of such games, to act as such Umpire.

(2) A staff of League Umpires shall be selected in the following manner: Prior to April 1st of each year, each club shall send to the Secretary the names of any persons of good repute and considered competent to act as Umpires. A list of all persons so nominated shall be prepared by the Secretary and submitted to each club, which shall then select therefrom a number equal to three times the number of clubs then in the League, and shall transmit a list thereof to the Secretary, and the required number having the greatest number of approvals shall constitute the staff of League Umpires.

The Board shall fill any vacancy caused by declinations, and shall appoint an Umpire to replace any that may be objected to in writing by three League clubs after the commencement of the championship season.

(3) In the absence of the agreement provided for in Sec. 1 of this Rule, the Visiting Club shall, not less than five days before any Championship Game, submit by telegraph to the President or Secretary of the Home Club the names of seven League Umpires, none of whom shall reside in the city of the Visiting Club. The Home Club shall then be charged with the duty of producing one of the seven so named upon the grounds in season for the game.

(4) In case the Visiting Club shall have failed to furnish the seven names as provided in Sec. 3, the Home Club shall select an Umpire for such game; and in case the Visiting Club shall have furnished the seven names, as provided in Sec. 3, and the Home Club fails to produce one of the Umpires so named, within fifteen minutes before the hour appointed for the game, the Visiting Club shall select the Umpire, who shall not be an employe of the Visiting Club.

Rule 55. The Umpire's Duties, in addition to those specified in the preceding Rules, are

(1) Before the commencement of a Match Game, the Umpire shall see that the rules governing all the materials of the game are strictly observed. He shall ask the Captain of the Home Club whether there are any special ground rules to be enforced, and, if there are, he shall see that they are duly enforced, provided they do not conflict with any of these Rules. He shall also ascertain whether the fence in the rear of the Catcher's position is distant ninety feet from the Home Base.

(2) The Umpire shall not reverse his decision on any point of play upon the testimony of any player engaged in the game.

(3) Should the Umpire be unable to see whether a catch has been fairly made, he shall be at liberty to appeal to the bystanders, and to render his decision accordingly.

(4) In case the Umpire imposes a fine on a player, or declares a game forfeited, he shall transmit a written notice thereof to the Secretary of the League within twenty-four hours thereafter.

Rule 56. The Visiting Club shall pay the fee and expenses of the Umpire of any championship game.

Rule 57. The Umpire shall not be changed during the progress of a Match Game, except for reason of illness or injury, or by the consent of the Captains of the two contesting Nines, in case he shall have willfully violated any of these Rules.

Rule 58. Any League Umpire who shall be convicted of selling, or offering to sell, a game of which he is Umpire, shall, thereupon, be removed from his official capacity, and placed under the same disabilities inflicted on expelled players by the Constitution of the League.

Rule 59. The Umpire's Jurisdictions and Powers, in addition to those specified in the preceding Rules, are:

The gentleman selected to fill the position of Umpire must keep constantly in mind the fact that upon his sound discretion and promptness in conducting the game, and compelling players to observe the spirit as well as the letter of the Rules, largely depends the merit of the game as an exhibition, and the satisfaction of spectators therewith. He must make his decisions distinct and clear, remembering that every spectator is anxious to hear such decision. He must keep the contesting nines playing constantly from the commencement of the game to its termination, allowing such delays only as are rendered unavoidable by accident, injury or rain. He must, until the completion of the game, require the players of each side to promptly take their positions in the field as soon as the third hand is put out, and must require the first striker of the opposite side to be in his position at the bat as soon as the Fielders are in their places.

The players of the side "at bat" must occupy the portion of the Field allotted them, subject to the condition that they must speedily vacate any portion thereof that may be in the way of the ball, or any Fielder attempting to catch or field it. The triangular space behind the Home Base is reserved for the exclusive use of the Umpire, Catcher and Batsman, and the Umpire must prohibit any player of the side "at bat" from crossing the same at any time while the ball is in the hands of or passing between the Pitcher or Catcher while standing in their positions.

The Umpire is master of the Field from the commencement to the termination of the game, and must compel the players to observe the provisions of all the Playing Rules, and he is hereby invested with authority to order any player to do or omit to do any act necessary to give force and effect to any and all of such provisions, and power to inflict upon any player disobeying any such order a fine of not less than five or more than fifty dollars for each offense, and to impose a similar fine upon any player who shall use abusive, threatening or improper language to the Umpire, audience or other player, and when the Umpire shall have so punished the player; he shall not have the power to revoke or remit the penalty so inflicted.

The Umpire shall, at once, notify the Captain of the offending player's side of the infliction of any fine herein provided for, and the club to which such player belongs shall, upon receipt of a notice of said fine from the Secretary of the League, within ten days, transmit the amount of such fine to the Secretary of the League.

CLASS VI.

Rule 60. In Order to Promote Uniformity in Scoring Championship Games, the following instructions, suggestions, and definitions are made for the benefit of scorers of League Clubs, and they are required to make the scores mentioned in Sec. 10, Article XII. of the League Constitution in accordance therewith.

Batting.

(1) The first item in the tabulated score, after the player's name and position, shall be the number of times he has been at bat during the game. Any time or times where the player has been sent to base on called balls shall not be included in this column.

(2) In the second column should be set down the runs made by each player.

(3) In the third column should be placed the first base hits made by each player. A base hit should be scored in the following cases:

When the ball from the bat strikes the ground between the foul lines and out of reach of the fielders.

When a hit is partially or wholly stopped by a fielder in motion; but such player cannot recover himself in time to handle the ball before the striker reaches First Base.

When the ball is hit so sharply to an infielder that he cannot handle it in time to put out a man. In case of doubt over this class of hits, score a base hit and exempt fielder from the charge of an error.

When a ball is hit so slowly toward a Fielder that he cannot handle it in time to put out a man.

(4) In the fourth column should be placed to the credit of each player the total bases run during the game. In scoring "bases run" where a player has reached first base as the result of the putting out of another player, such first base shall not be credited to the striker as one of the bases run by him.

Fielding.

(5) The number of opponents put out by each player shall be set down in the fifth column. Where a striker is given out by the Umpire for a foul strike, or because he struck out of his turn, the put-out shall be scored to the Catcher.

(6) The number of times the player assists shall be set down in the sixth column. An assist should be given to each player who handles the ball in a run-out or other play of the kind.

An assist should be given to the Pitcher when a Batsman fails to hit the ball on the third strike.

An assist should be given to the Pitcher in each case where the Batsman is declared out for making a foul strike or striking out of turn.

An assist should be given to a player who makes a play in time to put a runner out, even if the player who should complete the play fails, through no fault of the player assisting.

And generally an assist should be given to each player who handles the ball from the time it leaves the bat until it reaches the player who makes the put-out, or in case of a thrown ball, to each player who throws or handles it cleanly, and in such a way that a put-out results, or would result if no error were made by the receiver.

(7) In the seventh column should be placed the "total chances offered" to retire players, which should include each perfect play, as well as each misplay or failure to accept a chance to retire a batsman or base runner. "Chances offered" should not include "passed balls," "called balls," or "wild pitches." In scoring "chances offered" off batted balls, see Sec. 3 of this Article.

CLASS VII.

CONSTRUCTION AND AMENDMENTS.

Rule 61. No Section of these Rules shall be construed as conflicting with or affecting any article of the Constitution of the League.

Rule 62. No Amendment or change of any of these Rules shall be made, except in the manner provided in the Constitution of the League.

DISCIPLINE AND PENALTIES.

In view of the various new and important features introduced into League legislation, touching the relation of players to their clubs, it seems eminently wise and proper that a statement be made concerning the intention and effect of the alterations and amendments in question, in order that there shall be a distinct understanding as to the rights, responsibilities, and duties of both players and clubs. The purpose actuating the members of the League in thus drawing more tightly the reins of discipline has been simply and solely the carrying out, in letter and spirit, of that clause in the League Constitution wherein it is declared that the objects of the League are, among other things, "to protect and promote the mutual interests of professional base ball clubs and professional base ball players." That the amended code of the League for 1880 is directly in the line of this object, will indisputably appear after a survey of the situation in its altered aspects. The effect of the new penalties and system of discipline, prescribed by the League, will be, primarily, to hold to a stricter accountability than heretofore that class of players who are in need of some powerful restraining influence to help them guard against a tendency toward intemperance and excess. It is best to be plain and unequivocal in this matter, and to waste no words in coming to the point-which is, that hereafter it is not proposed to permit or tolerate drunkenness or bummerism in the playing members of League Clubs. It is not designed to interfere with the personal liberty of any player, by the imposition of foolish and impracticable restrictions upon his conduct while off the ball field, further than to require that he shall not disgrace his club and his avocation by scandalous and disreputable practices. A player's habits and deportment when not before the public in his professional capacity are matters which himself alone can regulate by the light of his interests and his conscience. Every ball player is competent to see for himself that intemperance is a two-edged sword in the hands of an adversary-cutting one way in the loss of the money he spends in the gratification of his appetite for liquor; cutting the other way in the loss of standing in his profession. Who does not know that the ball players in America receiving the highest compensation for their services are they who are scrupulously temperate and well-governed in their habits? There are players of the other class of a higher degree of skill, but who are handicapped in the matter of compensation and standing by a reputation for objectionable habits. The players receiving the highest salaries, by reason of their exemplary habits and consequent greater uniformity of skill and efficiency on the ball field, gain another advantage, the great value of which it is not easy to estimate. This is in respect of their reputation and standing before the whole world of base ball patrons. A player's reputation is not confined to any one city; it is well known and correctly gauged all over the country; and sobriety and gentlemanly conduct make firm friends, who will some day be of value and benefit to a player after he has, voluntarily, or by reason of some disabling injury, retired permanently from base ball. Instances of the value and advantage to a player of friendship and good will thus acquired could be multiplied indefinitely. There can be no two opinions on the subject of the importance to players of gaining for themselves such a reputation as will not only yield them present profit, but will insure them the respect and good will of the great public by which the game of base ball is supported, and thus put them in the way of future benefits and advantages, which the brilliant but unreliable player can never hope to realize.

As before stated, the direction of the latest League legislation is toward stricter discipline and more effectual pains and penalties for misconduct. Beginning with Section 1 of Article V, of the League Constitution, the power to suspend is additionally conferred upon each club, for any act or deed of omission or commission by which a player's services to his club are impaired in their efficiency and value. The player must render a full equivalent for his salary; he must live up to his contract, or suffer the consequences of an infraction of such contract. Each player should not fail to read carefully, again and again, the language of his contract, which has been devised by the League to meet every known or imaginable exigency in the case, and the use of which contract is, by League law, made compulsory upon every club in the engagement of every player. The contract is printed in clear type, so that every player may read for himself, and understand fully, the obligation he is taking upon himself. The contract speaks for itself; its provisions are known to every player now under engagement in the clubs belonging to the League. It is with the new powers created for the enforcement of the contract that we now have to deal, and which we desire to bring to the notice of the players of the League, hoping thereby to bring about a fair understanding as to their rights and duties, and to secure their co-operation in the measures devised for the benefit alike of the honorable player, the honorable club management, and the honorable game of base ball.

In Section 5, Article V, the words "or of any dishonorable or disreputable conduct" no longer appear; this cause is no longer sufficient to warrant expulsion, but is provided for in an entirely new section (Sec. 6), by which a club is not only empowered to punish or discipline a player for so much as remains of the season during which the offense was committed, but can go beyond that, beyond the life of its contract with that player, and suspend or disqualify him for the whole of the ensuing season, during which he is as absolutely shelved, disabled, annihilated, so far as playing in or against any League club is concerned, as though he had lost an arm or a leg. All this time he is not under salary, and is practically debarred from earning a living at base ball. The causes for which this penalty of suspension may be imposed are, "drunkenness, insubordination, or any dishonorable or disreputable conduct;" and while the punishment may at first seem excessive, it will be recognized as a wholesome and reasonable restraint when its purpose and application are considered. Section 6 is designed to prevent that condition of demoralization into which players of the intemperate or insubordinate class relapse toward the close of the playing season, when their club has no longer any prospect of winning the championship, when their own bad conduct and bad play have rendered it certain that they will not be reengaged in that club for the next year, and they have accordingly become reckless, defiant, and altogether unendurable to the club management. Very likely the player in question has overdrawn his salary, and for that reason is indifferent to the threat of suspension for the rest of the season, for he has drawn nearly all the money coming to him anyhow, and suspension has no terrors. But the extension of the penalty over into the next following playing season puts a different phase upon the case. He must render satisfactory service to his club during the whole time he is under contract, or, failing therein, he may be disqualified from play for the entire season succeeding. There need be no fear that a penalty so severe will be inflicted without just and ample cause. It is earnestly to be hoped it may never be inflicted, but its presence among the penalties authorized by the League Constitution cannot fail to prove a wholesome and beneficial restraint upon that class of ball players to meet whose case the. law was devised.

Suitable provision has been made for the enforcement of all disciplinary or restrictive legislation, whether relating to clubs or players. Section 7, Article V, of the Constitution, imposes the penalty of forfeiture of membership in the League upon any club taking part in any game of ball on Sunday, or which shall fail to immediately expel any man under contract with it, who shall take part in any such game, either as player, umpire, or scorer; while in Section 10, Article V, every League club is prohibited from playing in its nine a player who has been expelled or suspended from the League, and the League clubs are moreover forbidden to play any club employing or presenting in its nine a player under the ban of expulsion or suspension. And it is important to notice that the disciplining of a player for misconduct rests not alone with the club by which he is employed; on the contrary, such player may be expelled by the Board of Directors of the League, upon the complaint of another club (Sec. 1, Art. VIII), for a repetition of misconduct, even though his own club should decline to prosecute and impose the penalty. Further than this, the terms of the League contract constitute in themselves a direct and effectual means of holding the player to the same degree of accountability for the satisfactory character of the service rendered that is exacted by every business man at the hands of the persons in his employ. To this end, it is expressly stipulated in the League contract that the player may be suspended from play, and from pay, at any time when he shall be deemed by the club management to be disqualified from playing with the requisite skill, by reason of illness, injury, insubordination, or misconduct of any kind; or, whenever he shall, by the Captain or Manager of the nine, be considered as lacking in the. zeal, willingness, or physical condition necessary to the rendering of satisfactory service as a ball player. As an inducement to every player to so regulate his habits and actions as to keep at all times in a sound and healthy condition, the League contract provides that there shall be no wages paid where no services are rendered; that for the period during which a player is suspended or excused from play, for any of the above mentioned reasons, he shall forfeit such a ratable proportion of his wages, for the season, as the number of games not played in by him bears to the total number of games scheduled for the season. It cannot be denied that the placing of this power in the hands of club managers is a measure of necessary protection against habits of intemperance and their attendant evils of unsound physical condition, moral recklessness, loose play, and general demoralization. Experience has amply demonstrated the necessity for some plan of discipline that will reach the pocket as well as the pride of a player who deliberately and systematically falls short of the honorable discharge of his obligations toward the club and the patrons of base ball. The compensation paid to players in League clubs is so liberal as to entitle the clubs to the highest degree of skill and the best service a player can render, and it is the intention of the League to exact precisely this, and nothing less. There is not a condition or penalty prescribed in the League contract, constitution, or playing rules, that will work a hardship to any conscientious, earnest, deserving player. It is only players of the opposite character who will suffer, and it is their turn to suffer. The clubs have had more than their share of the pecuniary loss, the aggravation, annoyance and mortification caused by the state of affairs, which these conditions and penalties have been devised to correct. Justice to the players is a demand and obligation at all times recognized; justice to the club managers and stockholders, who have made good the deficiencies in the club treasuries, season after season; justice to the public, upon whose respect and patronage the clubs must depend for an existence; justice to the noble game of base ball, which it has been the constant aim of the League to elevate, perfect and popularize-these, and these alone, are the considerations which have influenced and brought about the League's latest legislation on the subject of discipline and penalties.

BUSINESS AGREEMENT

The parties hereto agree that during the ballplaying season of 1880, in consideration of the advantages to each of a uniform business system, each club subscribing hereto shall pay to every other club subscribing hereto, for each championship game of ball in which such other club shall, as "visiting club," contest against it upon its own grounds, the sum of fifteen (15) cents for each and every person admitted to such grounds to witness such game, or any part thereof, or admitted to such grounds for any other purpose, prior to such game or the hour appointed therefor, excepting only players of the contesting clubs, policemen in uniform, and ten (10) other persons. We further agree that, for the purposes of this agreement, it shall be sufficient for the visiting club to present its nine upon the grounds at the hour appointed, and prepared to play the game in the absence of rain.

2. The number of persons admitted to the grounds shall be determined by the use of the necessary number of self-registering turnstiles, the keys of which shall be delivered to the agent of the visiting club before the opening of the grounds for each game, and such agent of the visiting club shall have the right to affix a seal to the register, or box, of such turnstile.

3. We further agree that we will pay for the services of the umpire five dollars per game, the visiting club to pay such fee, and also all expenses incurred in securing the attendance of such umpire.

4. We further agree not to play any game with any non-League club, upon the grounds of such non-

League club, except upon the following stipulations, additional to those prescribed in Art. XII, Sec. 6, of the League Constitution: The non League club shall pay the League club, for each game actually played, and immediately upon the termination of such game, one-half of the gross receipts of each game, or, the sum of one hundred dollars, as the League club may then prefer; and the non-League club shall pay the League club fifty dollars in every case where a League club shall present its nine in the city or town of such non-League club, prepared to play at the time appointed for such game, and the game be prevented by rain, or any cause other than the refusal by such League club to play such game. In the event of the refusal or failure of any non-League club to pay the sum, or sums, due, as herein stipulated, the League club shall at once telegraph such fact to the Secretary of the League, who shall forthwith notify all other League clubs, by telegraph, and no League club shall thereafter play such defaulting club until the full amount due be paid the League club, which League club shall, in case of such payment, notify the Secretary, and he the other League clubs, by telegraph.

- 5. We further agree that, in any case not covered by Art. XII, Sec. 6, of the League Constitution, a League club having agreed to play a non-League club upon the grounds of the latter, and failing to present its nine in the city or town of such non-League club, prepared to play at the time appointed for such game, the League club shall pay the non-League club the sum of fifty dollars as the penalty of such default.
- •6. We further agree, each with the other, that at the conclusion of each League game we will cause an officer of our respective Associations to transmit to the proper officer of the club visiting club, at the place of its location, a statement of the receipts of said game.

In witness whereof the parties hereto have hereunto set their names at Buffalo, N. Y., this 4th day of December, A. D. 1879.
